EU-SPRI Early Career Researcher Conference (ECC)
PUBLIC R&D FUNDING AND EVALUATION: METHODS, TRENDS AND CHANGES

Preliminary Programme

September 26th

14.00 - 14.30  Registration

14.30 - 15.00  Opening of the Conference and welcome from organizing institution representatives

15.00 - 16.00  Prof. Benedetto Lepori - Università della Svizzera Italiana (USI)

16.00 - 16.30  Coffee break

16.30 - 18.15  Marta Zdavkovic*, Benedetto Lepori, Emanuela Reale
Public Research Funding Governance in Europe: An empirical Mapping

Gennady Belyakov
Governance Through Funding: History of Societal Criteria in Funding Conditions in the US and the UK

Rodrigo A. Cevallos
Understanding the role of the National Advisory Councils (NAC) of the National Innovation Systems (NIS):
A comparative study of Spain and Chile (2006-2017)

Chien-Yu Huang*, Ching-Chong Lai, Pietro Peretto
Public R&D, Private R&D and Growth: A Schumpeterian Approach

18.15  Closing first day
EU-SPRI Early Career Researcher Conference (ECC)
PUBLIC R&D FUNDING AND EVALUATION: METHODS, TRENDS AND CHANGES

Preliminary Programme

September 27th (first part)

8.45 - 10.30
Carmen Corona Sobrino
Assessing the impact of excellence evaluation on the dynamics of knowledge production in Spanish departments

Omar Kassab
New Ways of Understanding and Evaluating the Impact of Research Centers – A Case Study on Sustainability Science

Serena Fabrizio*, Lucio Moretti, Emanuela Reale
Participatory practices to produce impact in Social Science research: what lessons for evaluation?

Magdalena Wicher
The concept of Responsible Research and Innovation (RRI) as one example for the strategic evolvement of R&I funding schemes

10.30 - 11.00  Coffee break

11.00 - 11.30  Poster session

11.30 - 12.30  Keynote speech: Dr. Koen Jonkers - European Commission

12.30 - 13.30  Lunch

13.30-14.30  Keynote speech: Prof. Federico Squazzoni - University of Brescia
EU-SPRI Early Career Researcher Conference (ECC)
PUBLIC R&D FUNDING AND EVALUATION: METHODS, TRENDS AND CHANGES

Preliminary Programme

September 27th (second part)

14.30-16.15
Valentina Lamonica
Youth transitions from vocational training to the labour market: evidence from Piedmont, an Italian case study.

Emanuela Varinetti
Incentives to scientific mobility of researchers: the presence of foreign Highly Skilled Human Resources (HSHR) in Italian context

Paula Otero-Hermida*, Adrián A. Díaz-Faes, Pablo D’Este
Heterogeneity and homophily in actors’ engage in medical innovation: gender implications

Amonpat Poonjan
The relationship between the regional context and the performance of science parks: A Literature Review

16.15-16.45  Coffee break

16.45 – 18.30
Andrea Dazio Spinello*, Antonio Zinilli, Emanuela Reale
Topic of social relevance in research project funding instruments: evidences from European countries

Giulia Antonini
CNR and the promotion of the social sciences. An analysis of financed research projects

Hannia Gonzalez-Urango
The Analytic Network Process as a technique to improve resource allocation

Francesco Di Tommaso
How Public R&D Funding can be profitable in Europe and in an international financial markets?

18.30  Closing second day
19.30  Conference Dinner
IRCRES CNR - ROME
26-27-28 September 2018
Via dei Taurini 19 Rome Italy

EU-SPRI Early Career Researcher Conference (ECC)
PUBLIC R&D FUNDING AND EVALUATION: METHODS, TRENDS AND CHANGES

Preliminary Programme

September 28th

8.45 - 10.45
Franco Barbic*, Antonio Hidalgo
Determinants of governance structure in multipartner alliances: A multiple case study

Jorge Antonio Rodríguez Moreno
Public support effectiveness on innovation effort in Ecuadorian firms

Camila Zeitoun*, Sergio Salles-Filho, Giancarlo N. Stefanuto, Fábio R. Campos
The industrial and innovation policy for the Brazilian ICT sector: an analysis of the ICT Law

Tõnis Tänav
The relationship between direct public-sector subsidies and innovativeness

10.45 - 11.15 Coffee break

11.15 - 12.15 Keynote speech: Prof. Peter van den Besselaar - Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

12.15 - 12.30 Concluding comments - End of conference

12.30 - 13.30 Lunch